At bottom: Can you imagine Todd, Walter, and Steve, being the size of Leon, and Gary!

Dedication

*Seniors Dedicate
"1979 Reflections"
To Mrs. Barbara
Owens*

We the Senior Class of '79 wish to dedicate the '79 edition of "Reflections" to Mrs. Barbara Owens as a token of our appreciation for her services to the students throughout the years.

Mrs. Barbara Phillips Owens was born in September 1921 at Disputanta in Rockcastle County. She is a graduate of Brodhead High School and received her B.A. & M.A. in Art from Eastern Kentucky University. She taught at various schools throughout the county before coming to R.C.H.S. in 1972.

Mrs. Owens was married on January 28, 1939 to Mr. Chester Byron Owens. She has three sons and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Owens is more than a teacher, she is a part of us.

Administration & Faculty

County Administration

Mr. Charles B. Parsons is our County Superintendent. He has done a fine job during the past few years. He is always willing to help both the students and the faculty of all the schools in the county. Mr. Parsons received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from Eastern Kentucky University.

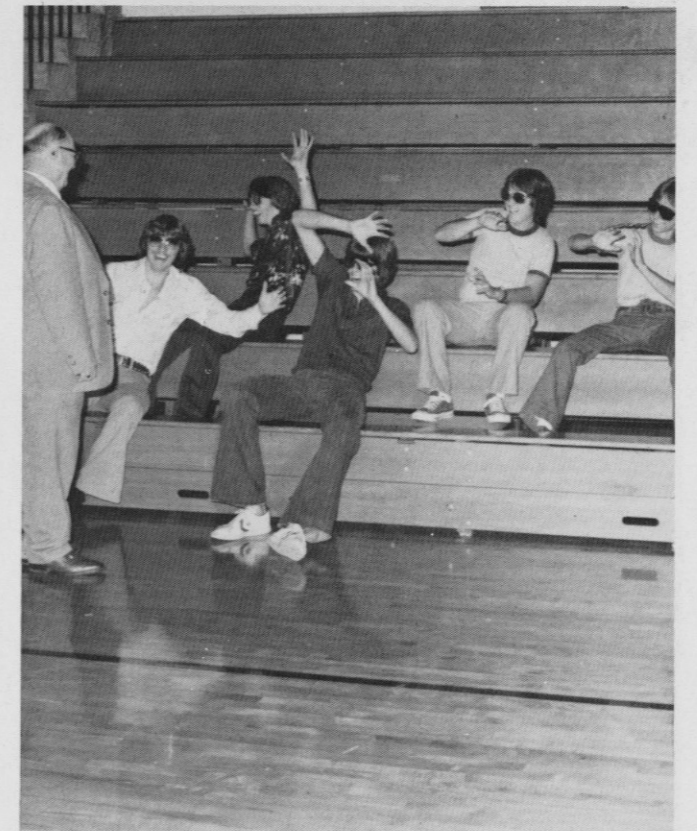

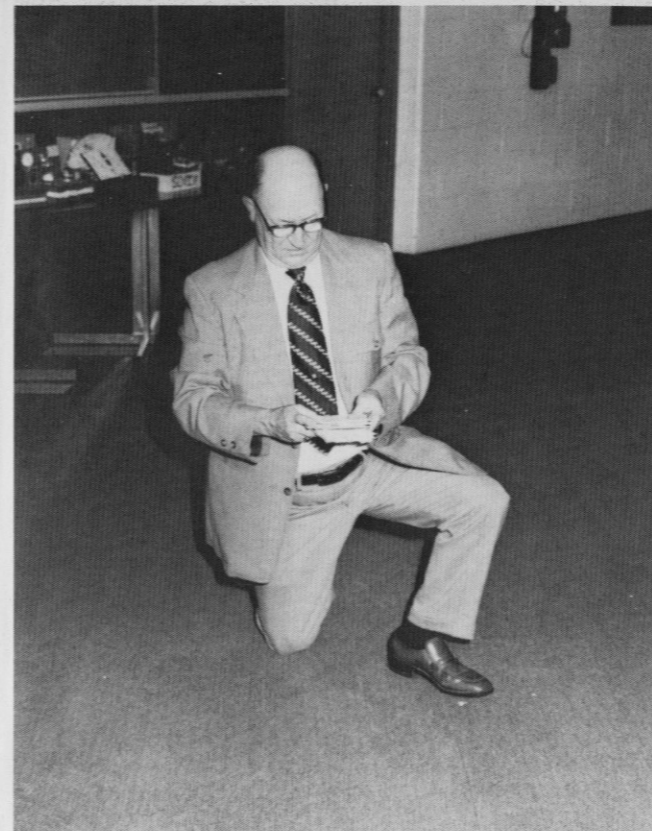

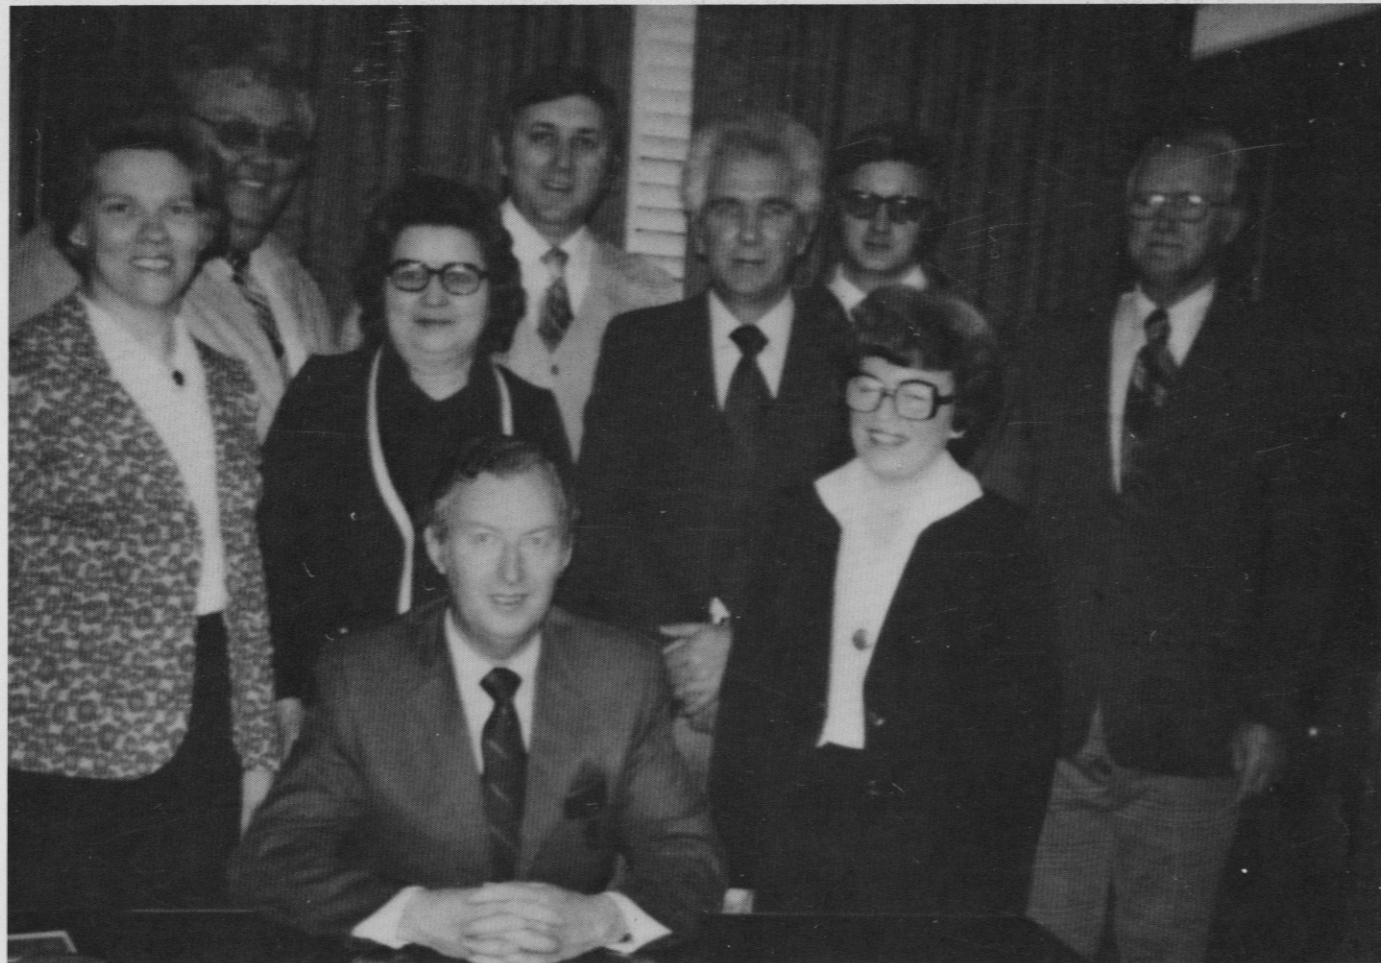

At bottom: Our county administrative staff consists of the following: Seated, Charles B. Parsons, Superintendent; Standing, Shirley Mullins, Title I Secretary; E.J. Smith, Food Service Director; Naomi Mink, Central Office Secretary; Douglas Hamm, Supervisor of Instruction; Willard Whitaker, Transportation Supervisor; Garlan Cummins, Director of Pupil Personnel; Mary Alice Hunt, Assistant Food Service Director; Lloyd Shutts, Finance Officer.

Principal

Mr. Cleston Saylor has been an excellent principal for our school now for seven years. We really appreciate the fine job he has done for us. Mr. Saylor received his M.A. degree from Eastern Kentucky University.

Bottom Right: The sun isn't shining; therefore, it must be the glare from Mr. Saylor's head.

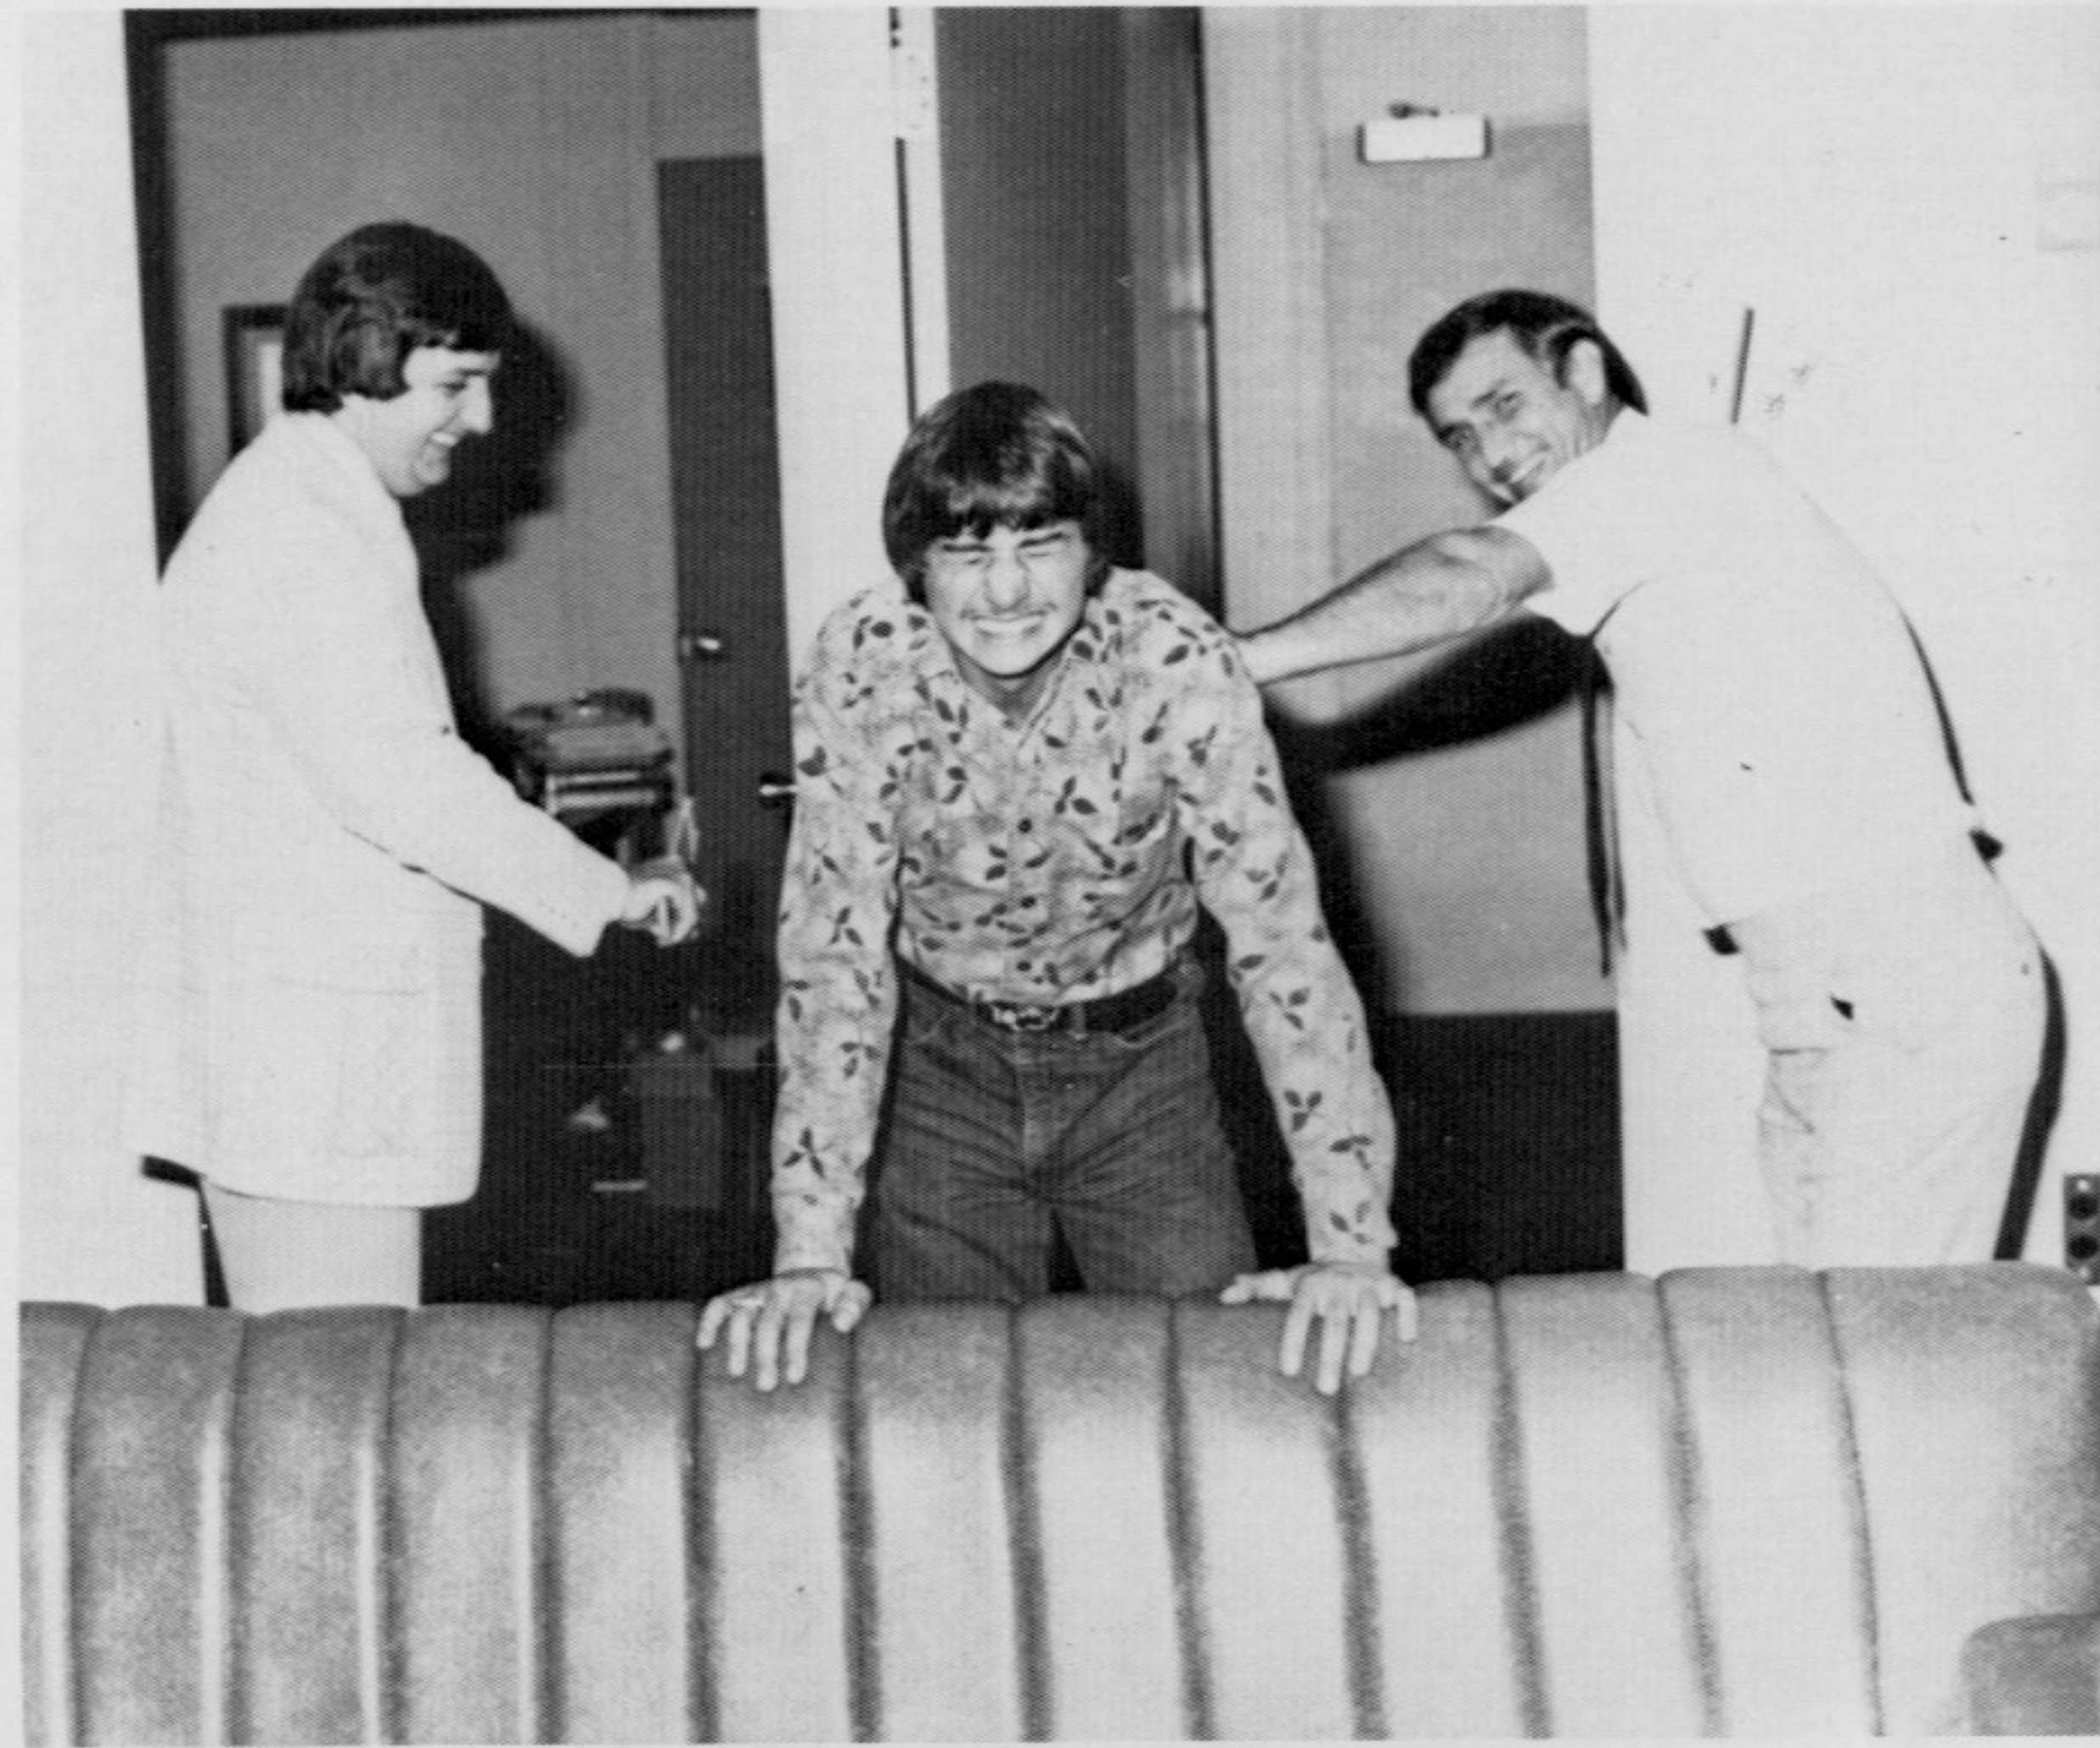

Assistant Principals

Our assistant Principals are Mr. Ronnie Cash and Mr. Kenneth Cornelius. They're always there when they're needed and sometimes when they're not.

Top Right: Looks like Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Cash are both ready to do their job!

Bottom Left: Mr. Ronnie Cash is in charge of lunchroom supervision, finance, and also teaches social studies. He has a M.A. and Rank I from Eastern Kentucky University.

Bottom Right: Mr. Kenneth Cornelius is in charge of the discipline, attendance and maintenance of the building. He also has a M.A. and Rank I from Eastern Kentucky University.

Counselors And Secretary

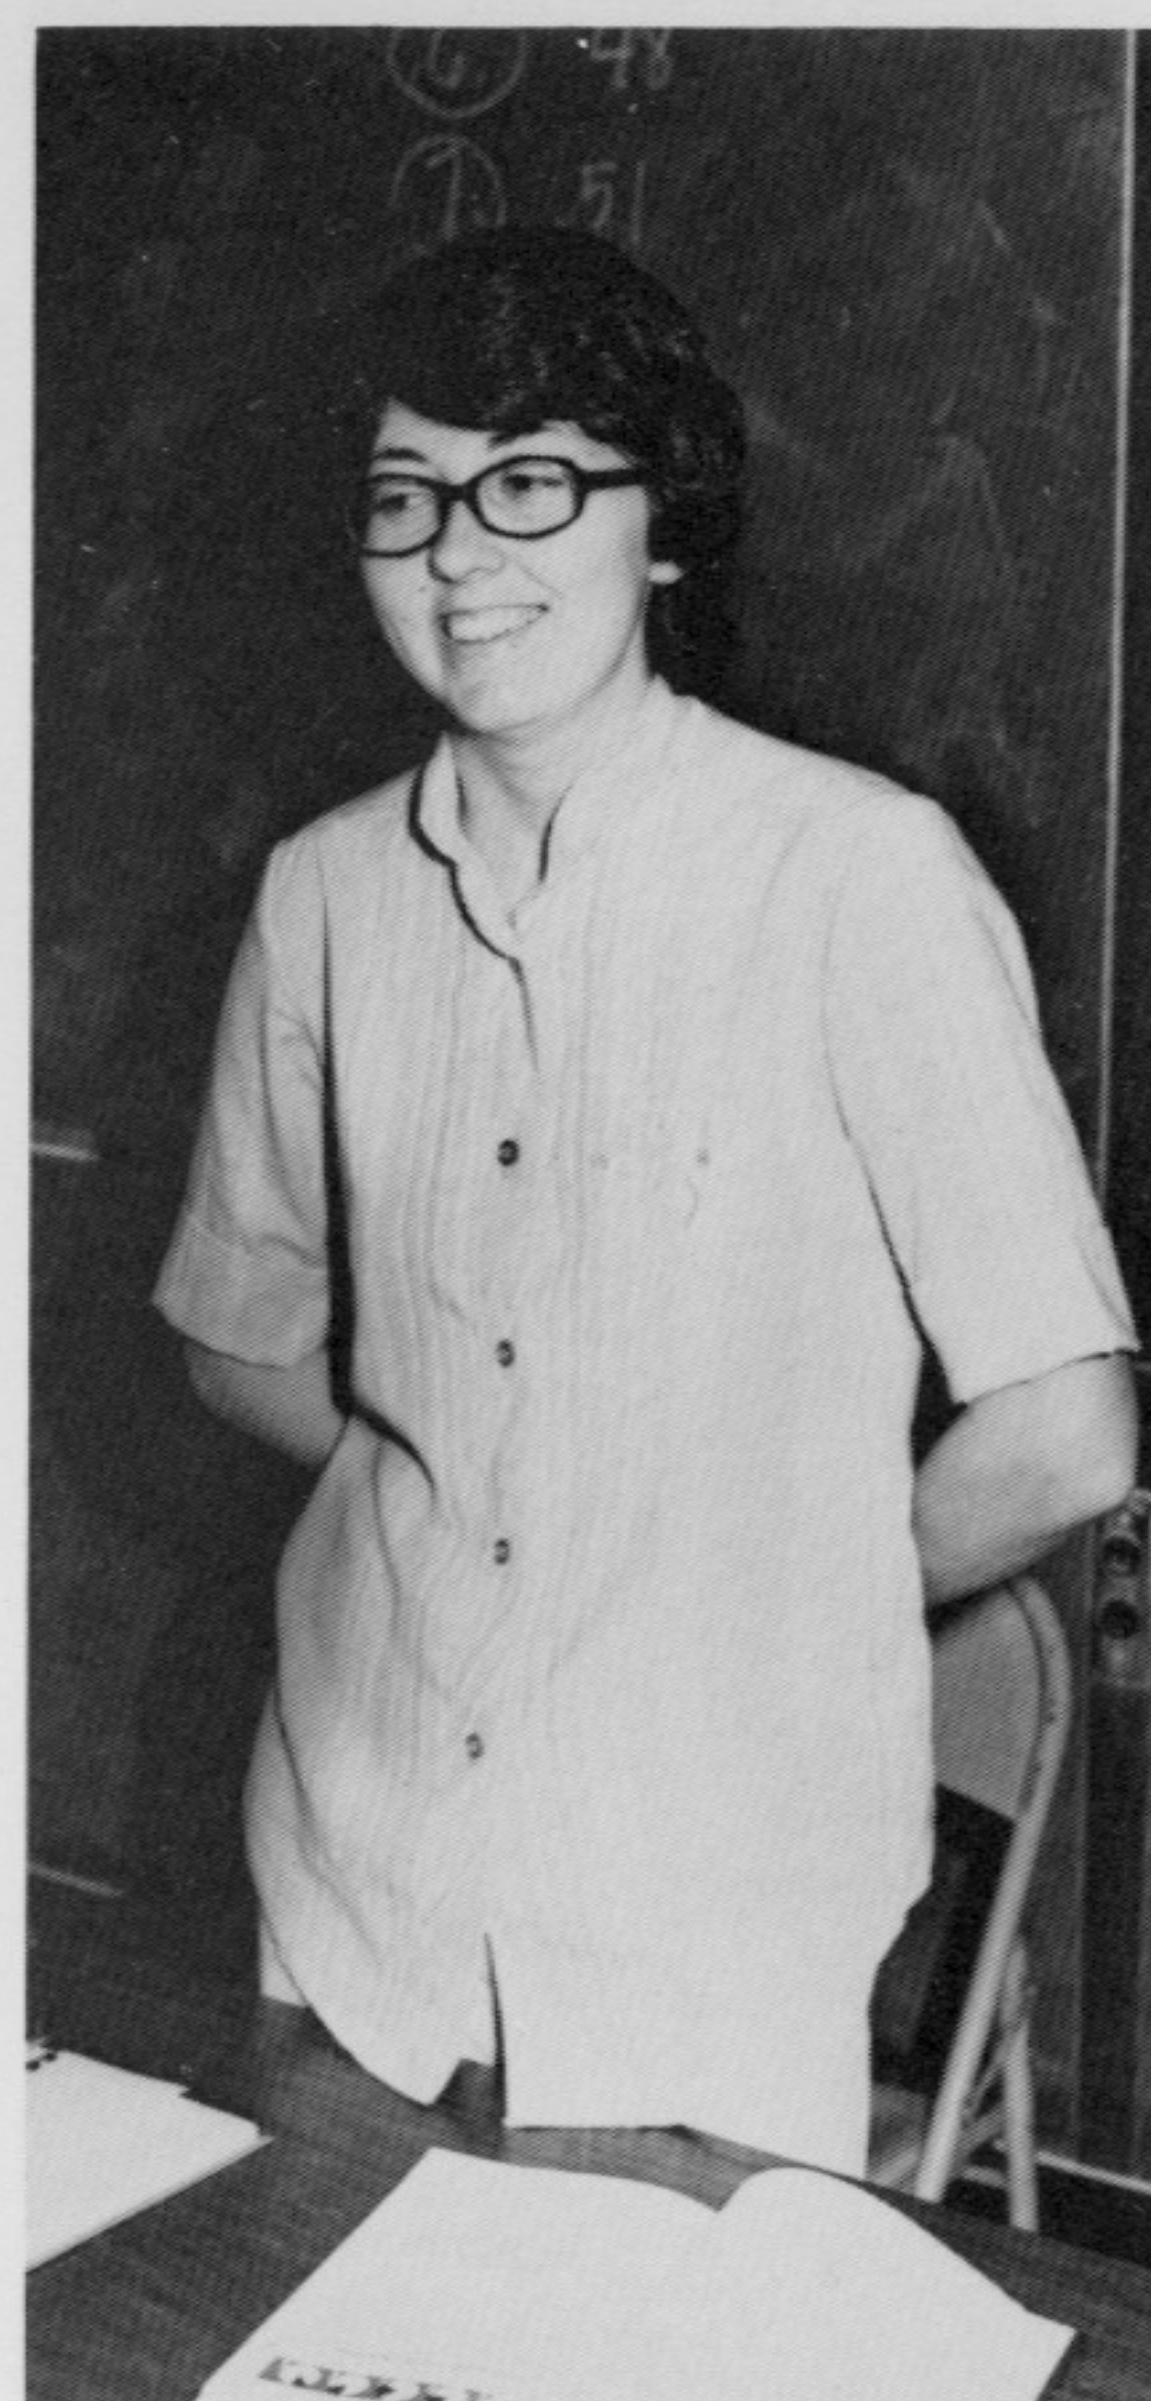

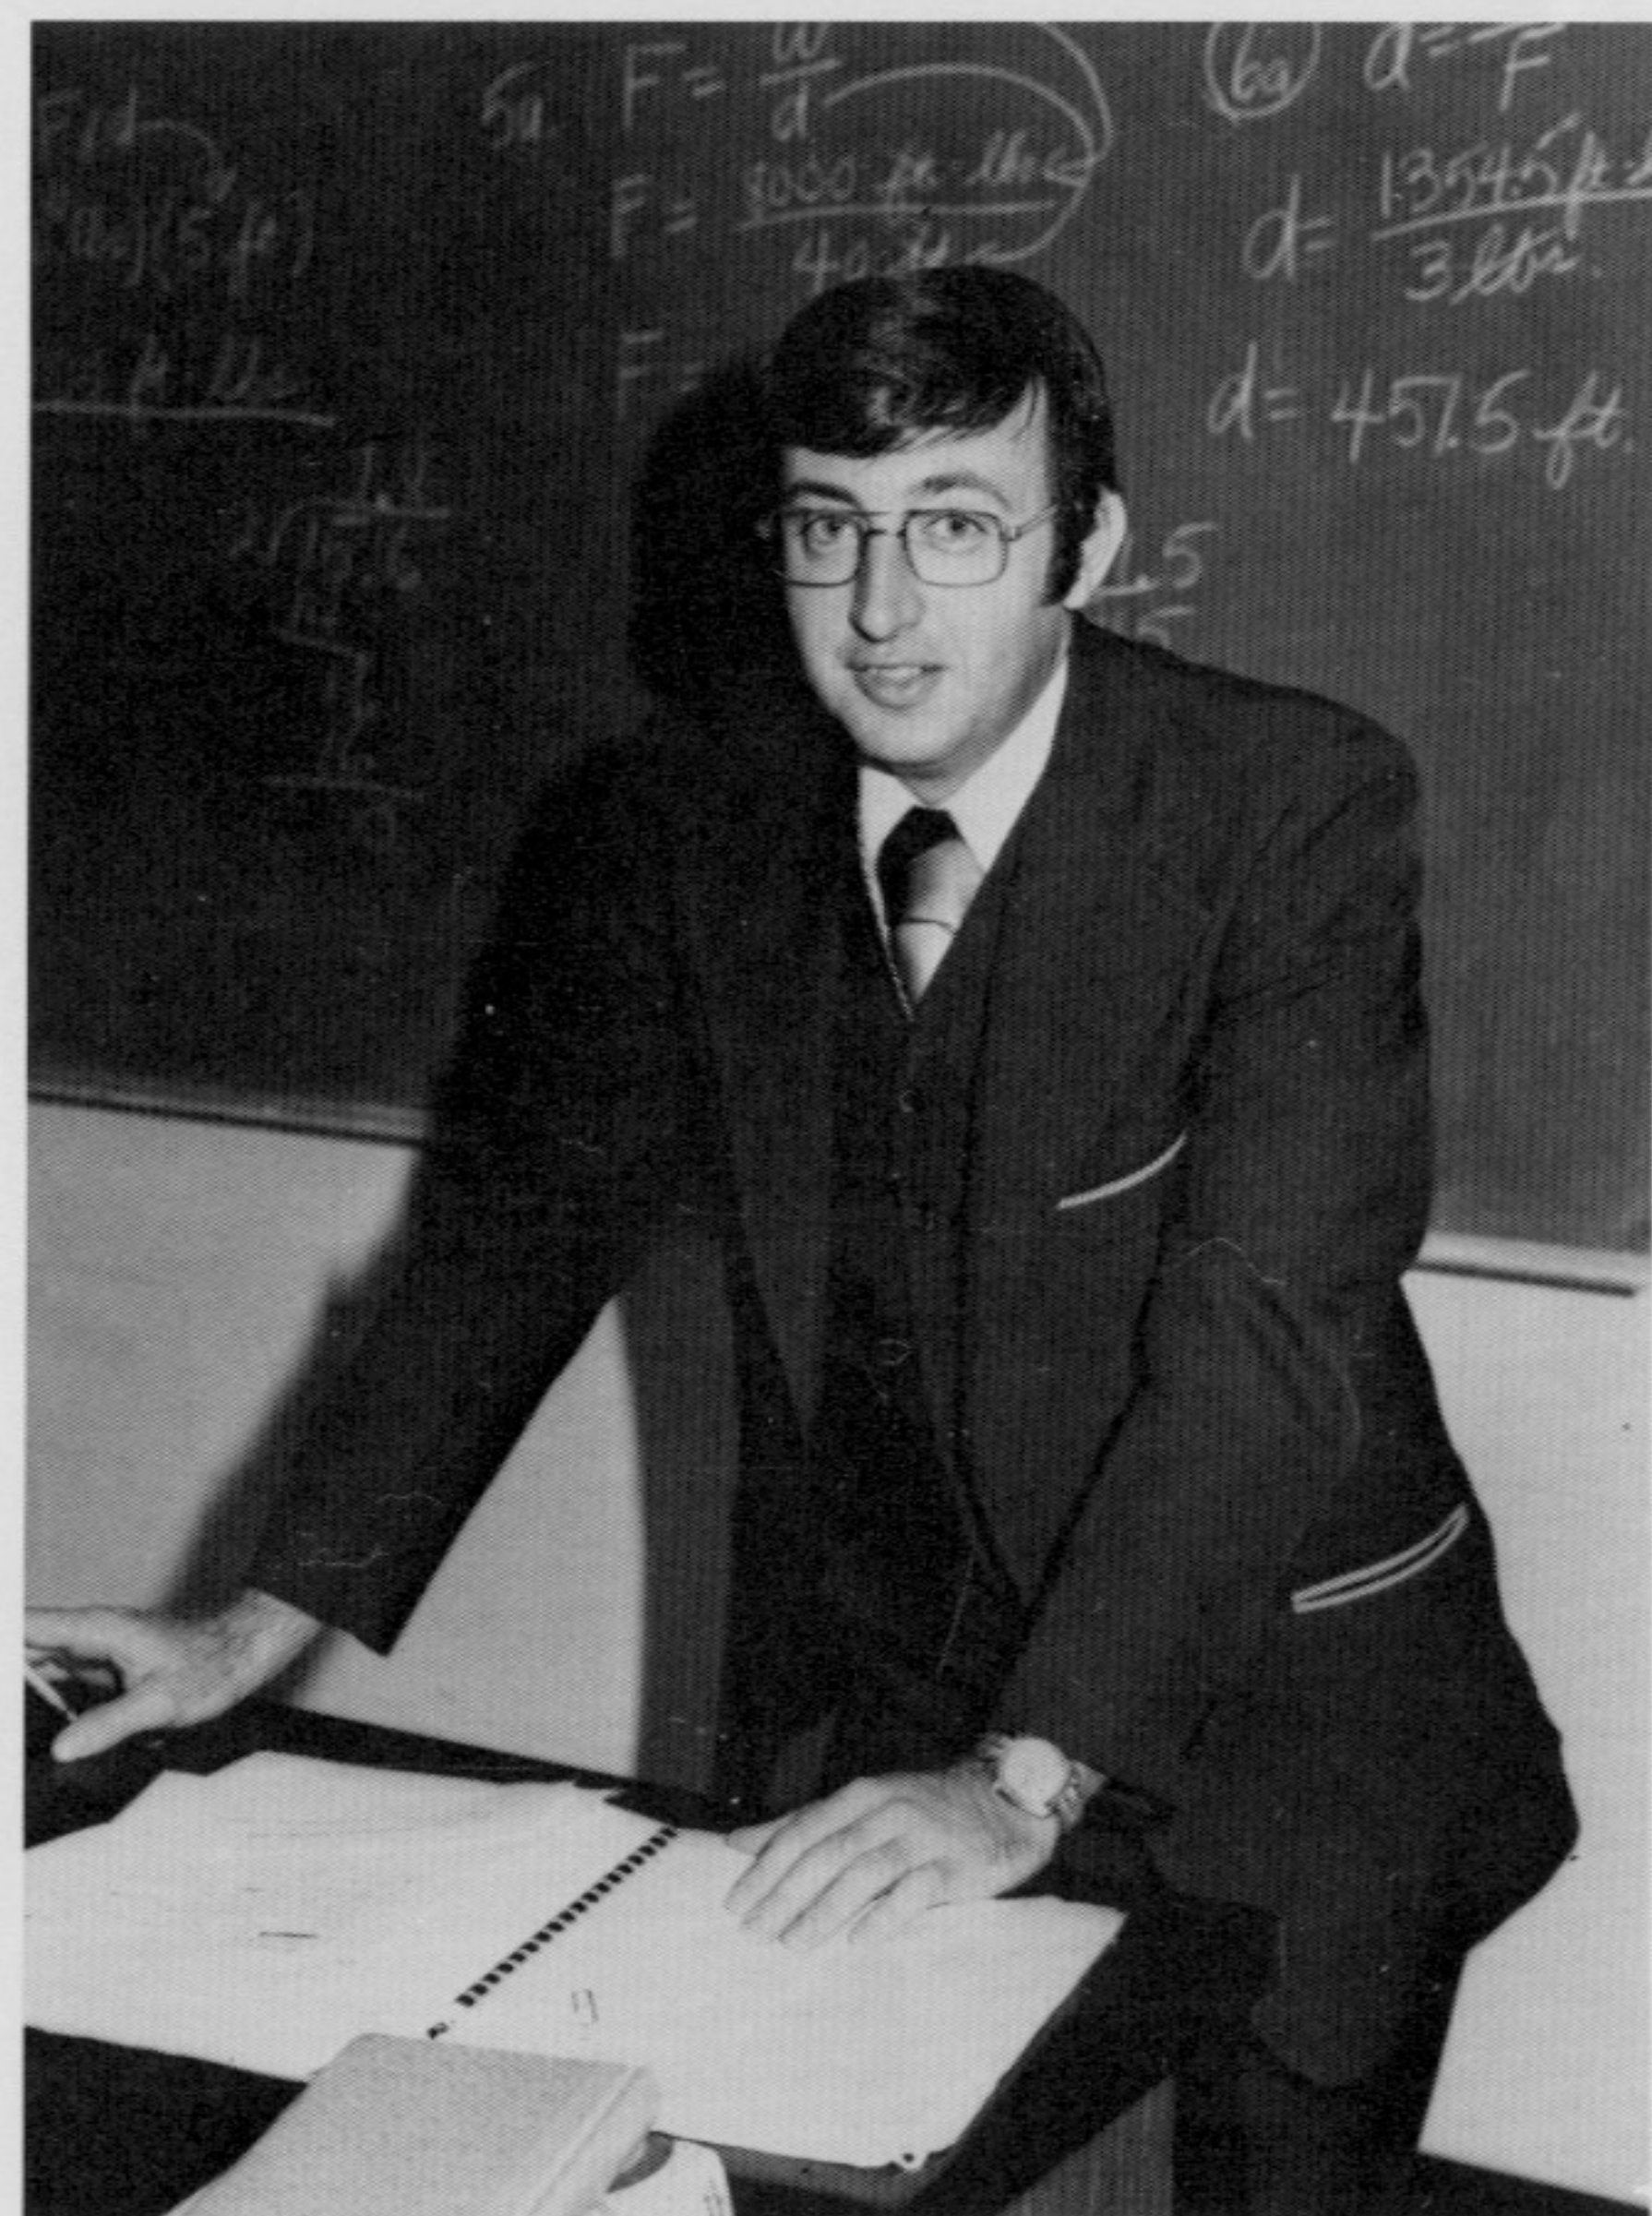

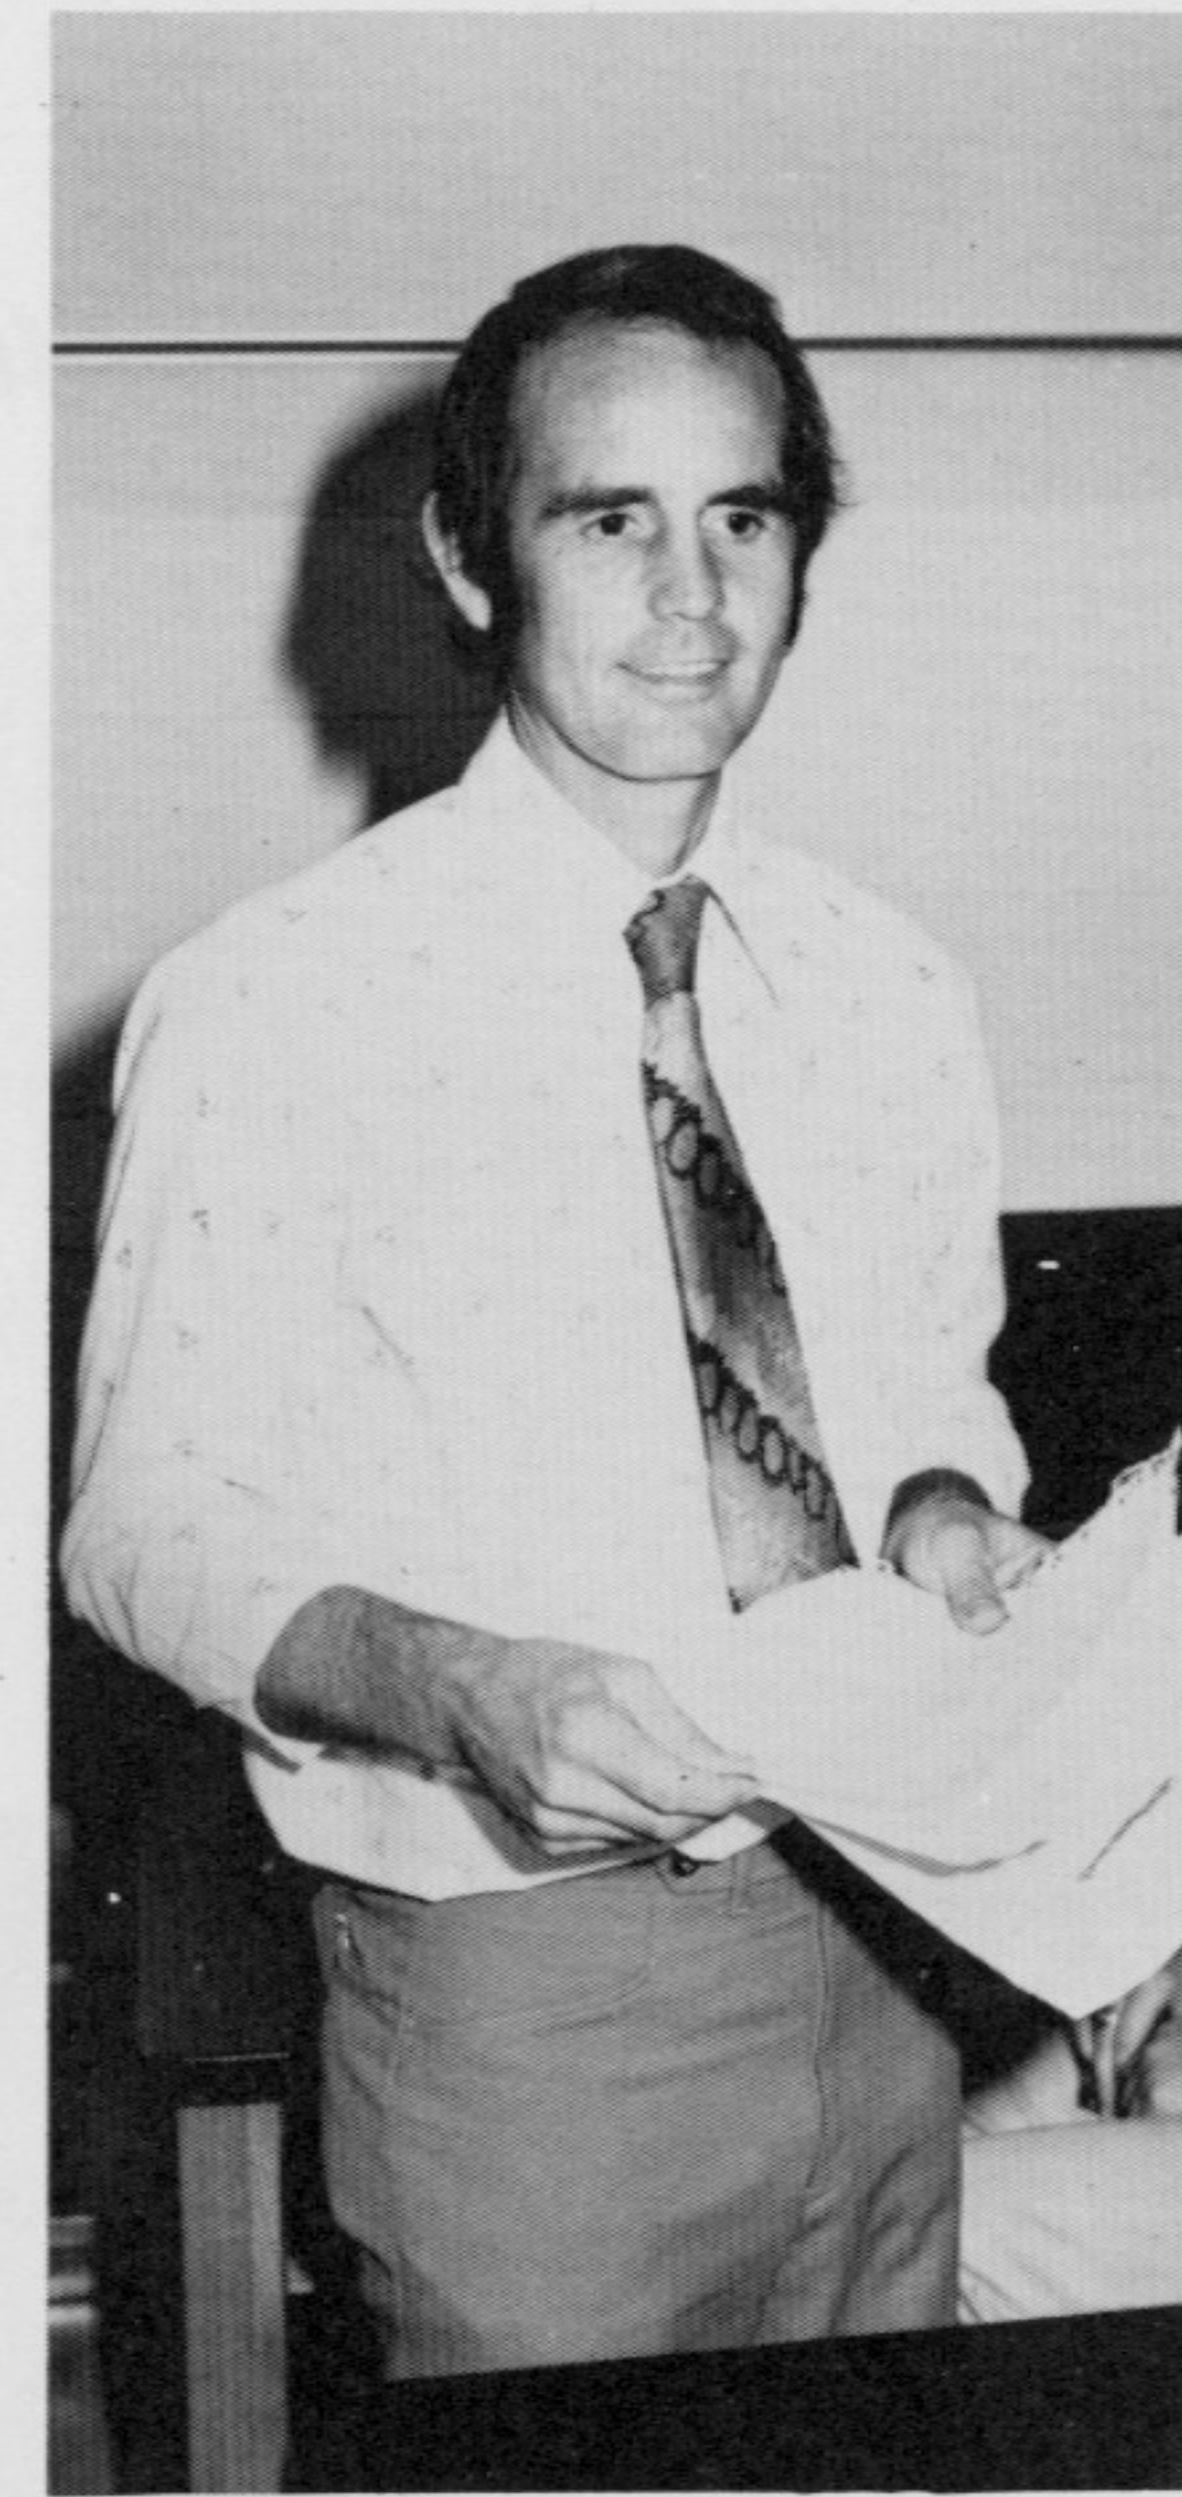

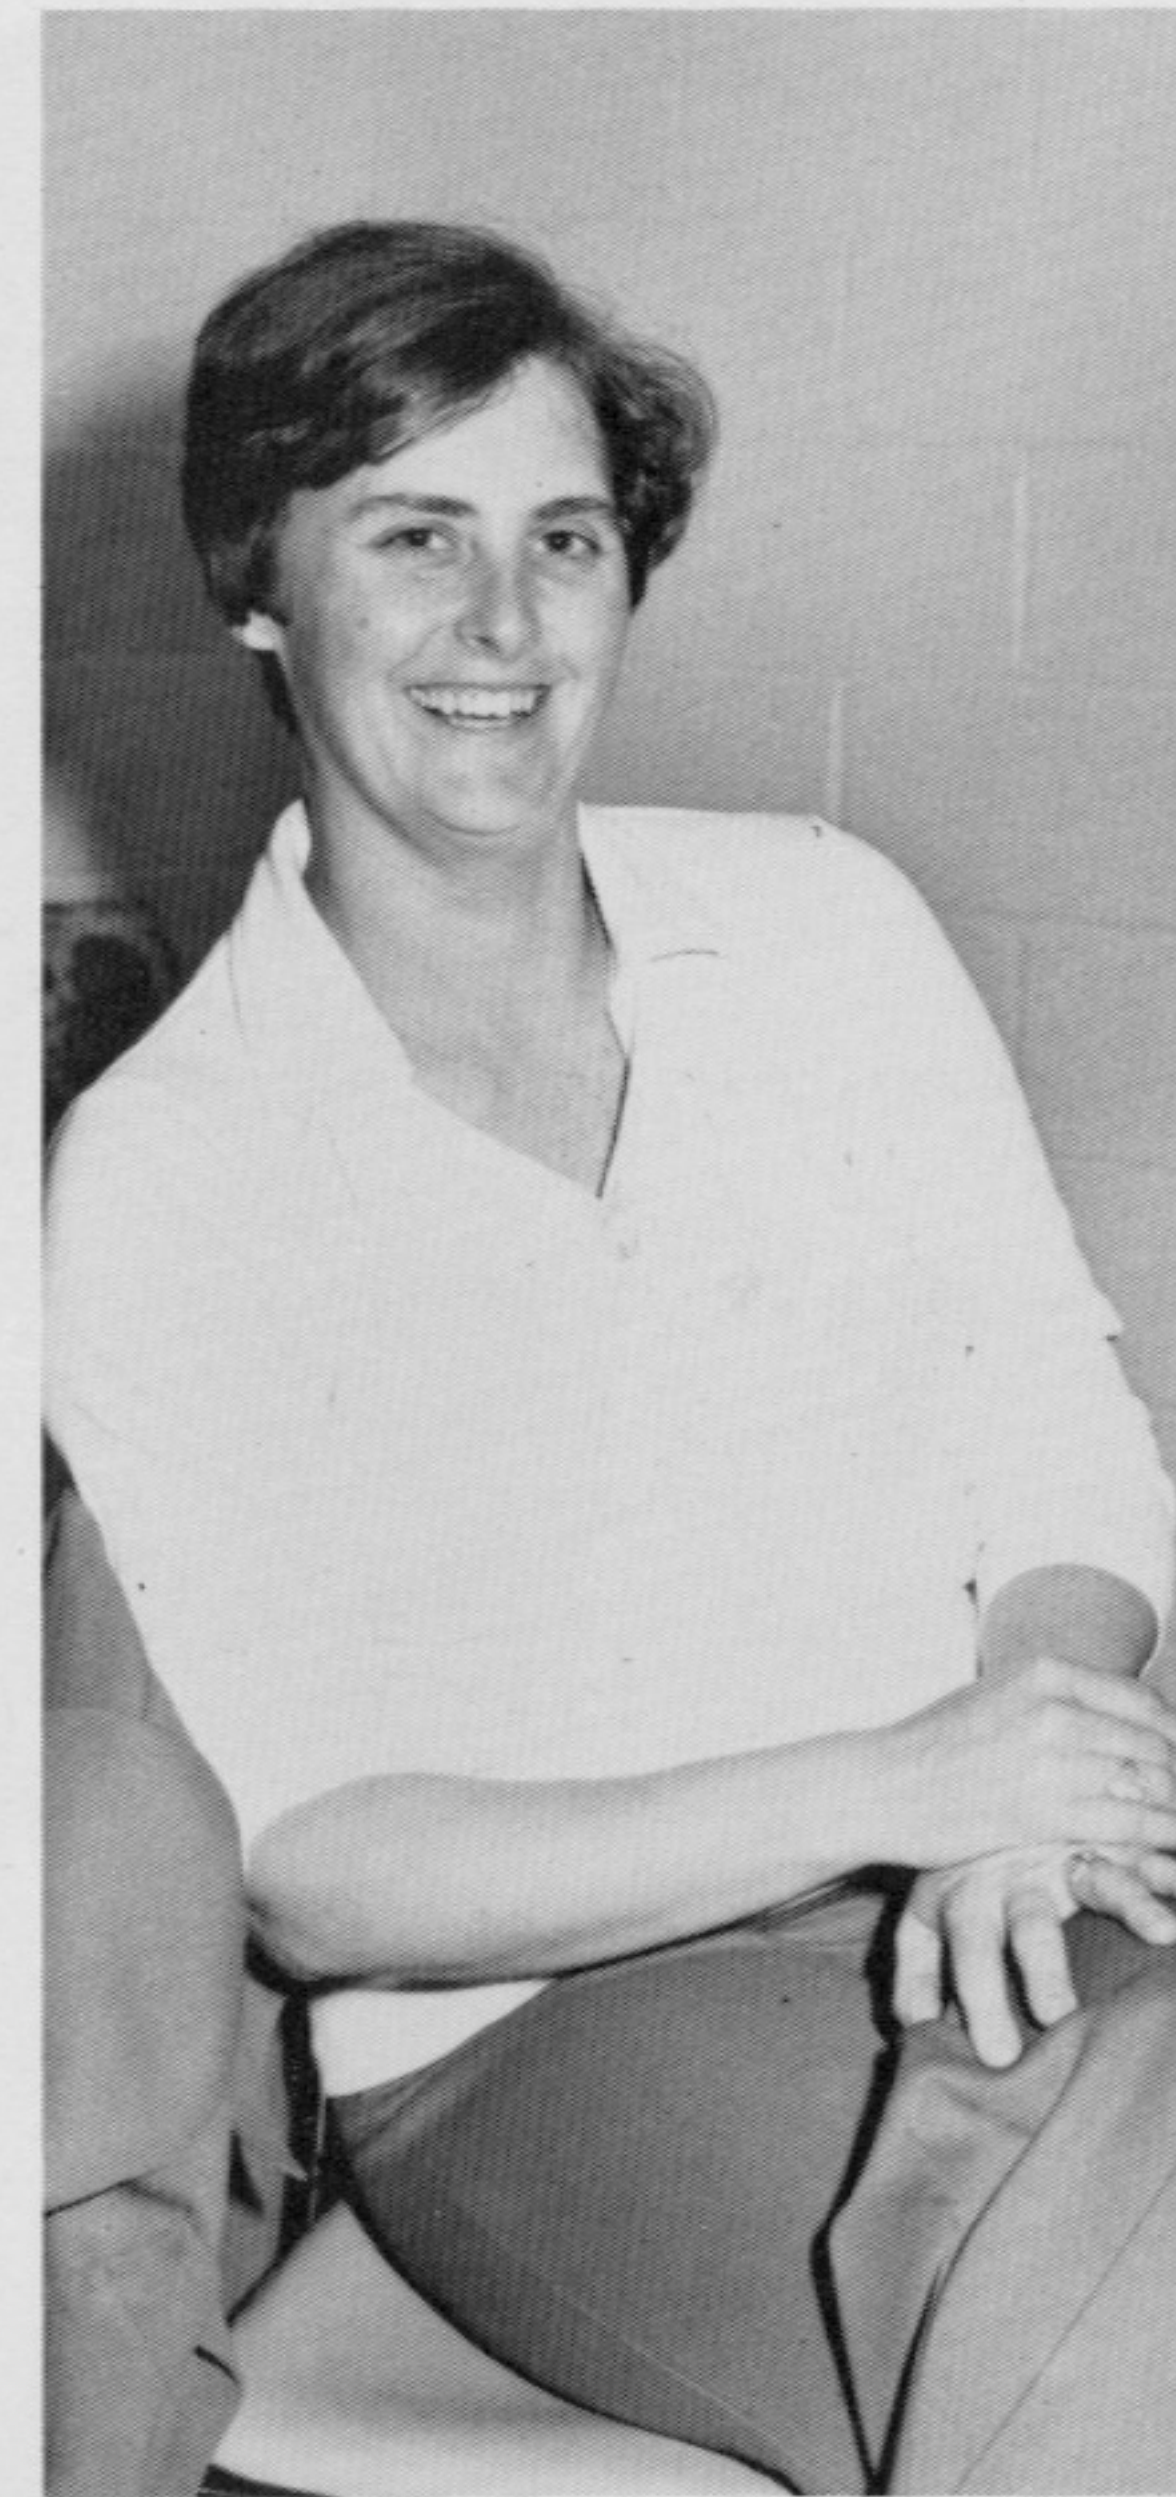

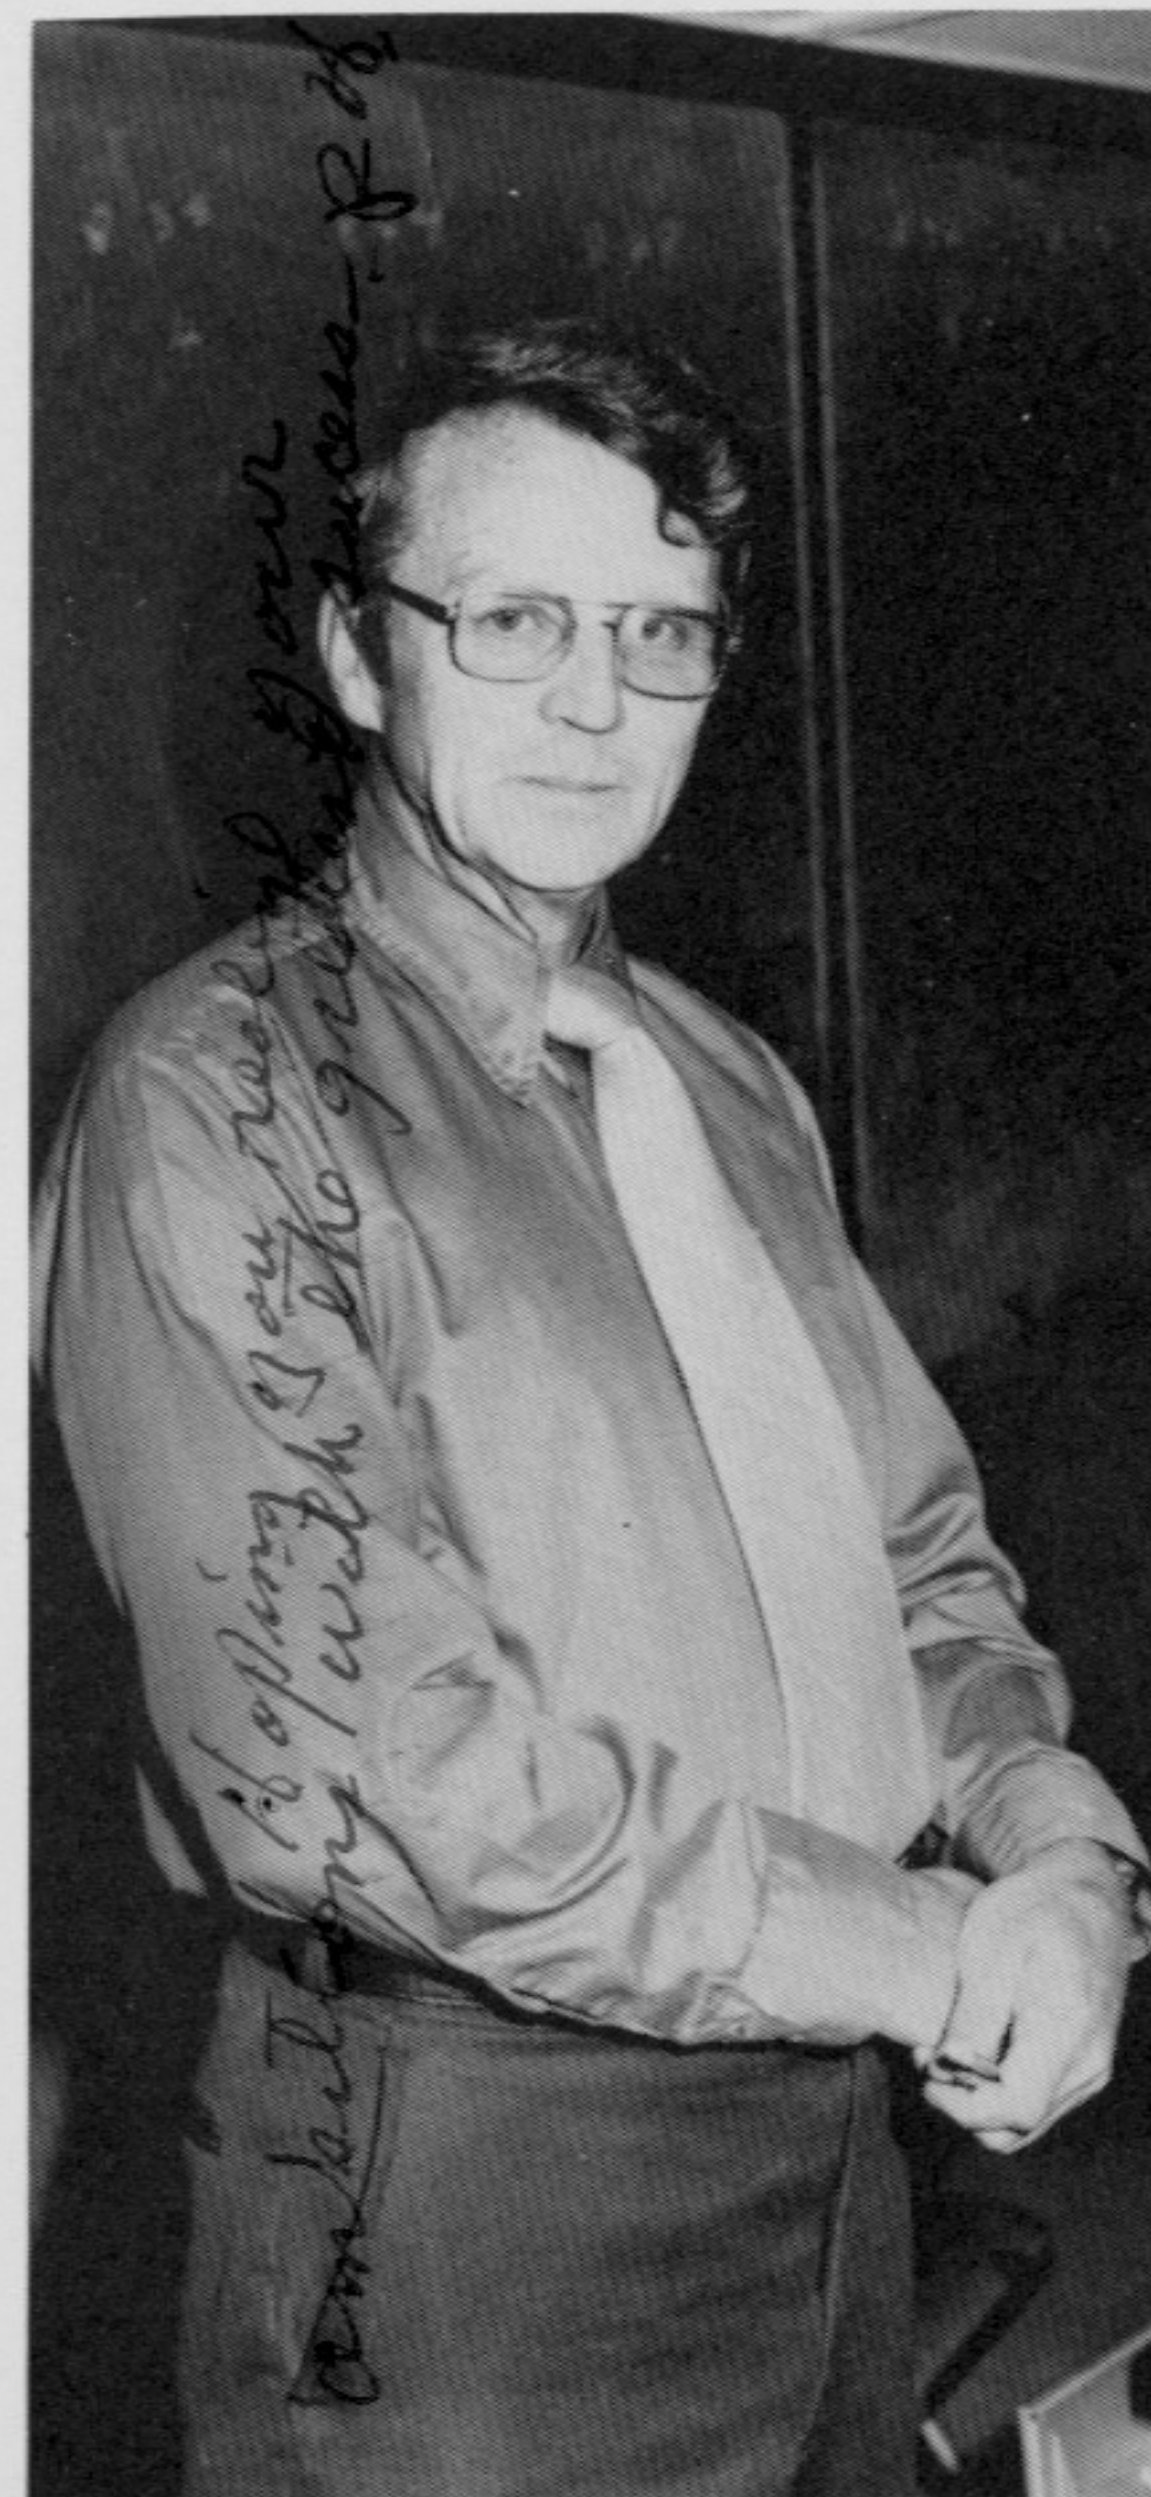

At Left: Mrs. Barbara Fain is our new School Secretary and is also the cashier in the lunchroom.

Bottom Right: Mrs. Mary Saylor is another of our counselors. She counsels the seniors and freshmen. Their help is very much appreciated.
